

SUMMER MASTER CLASSES

EARLY MUSIC

in co-operation with:

Fondazione Alma Mater
Konservatorium Wien University
Musikhochschule Trossingen Music University

From 21st to 24th August 2014, placed at the CEUB Bertinoro, for the first time three Master Classes for Early Music will be organized in co-operation with three major European University Institutions: the Fondazione Alma Mater of Bologna (Italy), the Conservatory of Vienna (Austria) and the Trossingen University of Music (Germany). The classes will be held as part of the 22nd edition of the Summer Master Classes organized by the Musical Institute "Dante Alighieri" of Bertinoro.

- Early Music for nyckelharpa / Schülselfidel / viola d'amore a chiavi
Solo and ensemble practice - From the Middle Ages to Baroque
Teacher: Marco Ambrosini
Languages: Italian, German, French, Spanish and English
- Recorder - Flauto Diritto – Flûte à bec
Solo and ensemble practice - From the Middle Ages to Baroque
Teacher: Michael Posch
Languages: German and English
- Viola da gamba
Teacher: Lorenz Duftschmid
Languages: Italian, German, Spanish and English

The master classes are considered as a first opportunity to meet international musicians interested in the study and improvement of Early Music.

The three teachers Marco Ambrosini, Michael Posch and Lorenz Duftschmid are active not only as interpreters of international fame, but also as teachers in various European Music High Schools.

The master classes will begin Thursday, August 21st in the afternoon and end on Sunday, August 24th at noon.

On Saturday evening, the 23th of August students and teachers will perform together a concert in the Cathedral of Bertinoro.

Attention: The maximum number of participants for each master class is limited.
