

Entrance examination

Music Education - Voice and Instruments (IGP)

Colloquium

Sample questions are:

What specialist knowledge does the applicant have?

How communicative is the applicant?

What analytical skills does the applicant have?

Why does the applicant want to study this subject?

What is his*her professional goal?

Can the applicant answer targeted questions?

Can the applicant structure arguments?

Does the applicant know about the special features of the study programme?

Can the applicant explain what distinguishes him or her from other applicants?

Which specialisations in their preliminary studies will fit with the course they want to take?

What practical experience in their past will fit with the course they want to take?

How did the applicant prepare for the course he or she wants to take?

What professional ideas and expectations does the applicant associate with the course he or she wants to take?